VICTOR MURDOCK VICTORIOUS

36 years scientific progressive browing embodied in

RHEINGOLD

PALE BEER

TEUTONIC

S. Liebmann's Sons

At all dealers

in sorrow, always with rejuctance possibly new conditions call for application of new remedies. He so disciplined that he pauses and gives consideration to the single tax proposi-tion. Are we winning?* Again the gentle lower house always were dominated by the chairmen; the average chairman con-

carried by the chairman to the committee

"Two years ago it was a regular and ac-now; he dreads attack. He has been liv-ing in a state of perpetual fear of attack from the insurgents. He shrinks from plex civilization. He appla ided the elec-me and day of extreme commercialism in a few days to spend the summer in the way that politicians do among their have one ambition," he confesses, accomplish it. I'd like to write a book d put some of the folks I know in it would be a great book; couldn't help it; but I haven't the power to put it

CHINESE THEATRE REOPENS

Doyers Street Conventions.

"And illogical," you ad "Naturally," he admits.

unfortunately not the gift

grimage

as he can

although.

is not real

"Two years ago the committees of the

CALLERY ANY LONISH CHANT AS HE OF THEY IS ATTERS OF BABYLON.

per star Lusser to the Question "Is Bousewith You." The Colonel Buesn't trust the People Enough Auld Clootje and test to if We Hom't Watch Out armed from the popular Mecca, Bay, Pilgrim Victor Murdock, by red headed and insurgent and a threefold combination of se of a sort-sits at a window the Hotel Aster and contentedly own the dust of pilgrimage fancy must be playing us tricks. the red headed one from Kansas? vil first thought is additionally i by attention to what the Kansan ing Looking broodingly out on twinkling Broadway twinkling the fact that it is Saturday night the Fourth but one day off he is ed to utierance between quaffs;

quaffing something, and it must orthfully admitted. s. ' he says meditatively. 'Babylon at he destroyed." "hh?" you reply, startled. It is not vet time for Sabbath morning sermon, annual patriotic oration, and the text as caught you unawares. Babylon must be destroyed," he rereats solemnly, and the taxicabs honk, the street cars buzz and all the other efatigable sources of sound furnished had a spectacular career, including a Bourbon antagonism to the step of progress, involving opposition to specie payments, to irrigation conservation, to pure food legislation, to railroad rate regulation, to postal reforms and virtually to everything which is sought in the development of the public good against the white knuckled canch of the interests. We have to-day a gentleman in the chair so disciplined that he pauses and gives where more prodigally than by this square join in a Greek chorus accomniment. He listens for a second. It's just the old Jebusite raising the devil again," he says, and it is borne upon you that it is beautiful Broadway herself that is the recipient of these uncomplimentary remarks. *Once again Cassandra ran about the streets of Troy hollering about the Tenderloin; Jeremiah did the same for Jerusalem, and Isaiah had to take only one good look at the people Jerusalem and that was enough for The modern prophet's gaze penetraces far eastward, probably seeing a mythical wall overjutting the busy East River and battlements suitable for warning cries.

Which took its orders. Today members of committees are sending through charmen to the Speaker—demands. The current ts influence is so awful. It has been a case of Boston vs. Rector's, and Rector's has won out. Time was when we honored "Two years ago a man who desired the Boston and the literary traditions she privilege of asking his fellows to grant consent for the consideration of a minor didn't like the way Long was behaving bill had to take hat in hand and crawl to and that in all likelihood they would laugh, 'Oh, that's old Boston,' and pass her up for glittering Broadway and the shipshod literature, so called, which comes with her. I say we; for she dominates us from coast to coast. That's the matter of it. We feel her even in the say what he would have it is a great relief to him. awful part of it. We feel her even in Kansas.

This not so much the golden calf worship; it's the calm sang froid with which we worship. We know, and we know that we know. But what the devil do we care? However, he that gentleman that I pust named will get us. The hand-writing is on the wall."

Two years ago it was a regular and accepted practice in Congress to pigeon-hole measures which did not enjoy the Mark that the majority to have its way and to drag from the recesses of the pigeonhole he is the pigeonhole of the majority to have its way and to drag from the recesses of the pigeonhole he is the p at this point, but he can't. Then he wants red to, but you can't.

Well, anyway," he says, "I think it's in 'Measure for Measure' that a high and mighty characterizes his age and his city. it's an age of reforms, he says, and Heknows the substance is gone, the House they'll just have to eat themselves away or words to that effect.

Now, that's New York exactly; it's her attitude 'Let the reforms eat themselves away, she says, and she even smiles with a kindly tolerance on them. She has torgotten there is a code of benalty that's as old as the world. She but you'll be thinking I'm a demagogue," he interrupts himself.

"You are not?" He shakes his head. "No, nor a re-

"A statesman, perhaps?" "Good heavens, no! A statesman is a politician gone to seed."

"A politician then?" 'How did you get into politics then?' 'Chance-luck: I don't know '

"Chance—luck: I don't know.
"Why do you stay in politics?" The answer here comes ready and straight of the revelation of fact. So far as I know of the revelation of fact.

enough
"I like folks; I just love folks There's where I can't get any one to agree with me—to believe in people through and through; that they are all right at bottom and will come out all right. Even Roosevelt doesn't,  he adds sadly of the reveation of fact so far as I know prevention in the view of the public But he no longer in the view of the public But he no longer refuses to no.000,000 people the right of represention and the insurgents will take good care to make such further changes in the can't think of anything I am definitely, unless it's an insurgent; I'm that Do you want to know what one is I don't know how or when this new/angled ame got invented, but insurgents are There are men who are anxious to meet new problems arising in the world, to grapple with the complexities and to elve them without interference, he are neither eager to solve new prob ems nor willing to grant that they exist. such men are what we to-day are calling assurgents, and they are as old as the

They stand for no communistic scheme never try to bring prosperity to the tless nor on the other hand to take from the individual the right to vie comb as high as his industry and tration? away from the individual the right to vie and to climb as high as his industry and integrity will carry him. But they do fropose that only in the law and before law and in the men who execute it is shall be equality.

That's what I am first of all, I reckon.

to win. The insurgent's head seems more colorfully as he valuts Anyway his parents named him and he's Irish and therefore a a fatalist and believer in portents. Murdock admits that there's no about his being a Kansan either n nearly forty years since he was t there and the seven of these that been away, representing his State shington, his constituents haven to i him to grow far afield.

greatest country in the world—through "I'm just red headed," he concludes and Kansar and insurgent and Kansar and insurgent " too humbly. And kensas is tuse of her people. They came New England, most of 'em, and do't have too many pillows to them up. They fought sand and cyclones and droughts, grassand chinch bugs. A race of en and women developed; a bread ters, sometimes called cranks. With a Policeman in the Wings to Goard the ev kept on fighting, and they keep tring for their principles. The con of Kansas has been fixed and managed to collect enough stray Chinese ow for nearly twenty years, and to its heritage." But a glimmer actors to present one of the old time short tish enritage. But a glimmer operas last night after a silence of nearly tests face. Babylon is so near, six months. They played "The Strong Man from Quong Dong" before a s sweiens up quickly though at the tering but thankful audience.

uside to talk about myself," he be actually says it before mounts figurative charger and on to the speaker claims honors of the casion, does he? And the insursiant them, do they? Well, listen a facts wears ago the Speaker was in aggressive domineering, dictated as a sail may run who readicily suggestive, gently directive.

suggestive, gently directive, dvisory. Are we winning?" with dancing and singing on the side. advisory. Are we winning? to the difficulties of modern life considered unconventional is stationed behind the wings.

neurgent smiles gently.

DR. LONG OUITS SOCIALISTS

PLATRUSH PREACHER RESIGNS

Not a Political Socialist. The Club's Attitude in the Matter Explained.

FROM DISTRICT CLUB. on IMin't Like His Ship Squaddy Activity He Says that He is a Religi

The Rev. Dr. John D. Long, who used to give socialistic addresses and was secretary of the Christian Socialist Fellowship, has got out of the Socialist party. Browns Hammond, who used to be a trustee in Dr. Long's church on Lenox road near Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, and is the financial secretary of the Eighteenth Asembly district Socialist organization. said that if Dr. Long hadn't got out of the party organization charges of social-istic heresy would have been brought against him and that would have wound him up for sure. Mr. Hammond buys and seils real estate in the front part of a store at 1199 Flatbush avenue, which serves also as the meeting room for the Socialists of the SUES LUCKY BALDWIN ESTATE. district. He hasn't been a trustee of the Parkside church for a year. He says he "graduated" about a year ago. . to the modern wheatfield; the rule of the dirt road to interstate commerce; the customs of the tinker to modern manu-facture. To-day he is admitting partly "It was a queer bunch of trustees Long had when I was there," he said. "There was Bernard J. Riley, who used to be a Ashley Turnbull, and her counsel, Timo-Catholic, and Sol Schwartz, a Hebrew." Mr. Hammond described himself as "an Friday for Los Angeles to begin litigation atheist, agnostic free thinker or sump'n. d a spectacular career, including a curbon antagonism to the step of

I dunno Mr. Hammond's friends became associated with thw Parkside church about three years ago. It was about that time that Dr. Long was busiest in his propaganda of religious socialism. He had a small congregation there already, but when Mr. Hammond and the others came good many of the old attendants left. "When we joined the others faded give and bequeath the sum of $10." away." said Mr. Hammond, waving his Attorney Coakley says that it "They didn't like us much."

Mr. Hammond's turn came to leave the Parkside Church last June. The others sulted the Speaker as to what legislation should come out in that committee and went at about the same time. "We what not; the dictum of the Speaker was dropped it," said Hammond. "because he made his prayers too long. And he went through too much ceremony installing deacons, runnin' through the established customs and such. All distasteful to the socialists -all of it. A sociallist don't belong in the Church, you know.

have got him up before the club on charges. The principal offence, Mr. Hammond says, was Dr. Long's connection with the Merchant Marine League. Dr. Long has been making speeches for the league in the West, arguing for ship

"We don't stand for his company." declared Mr. Hammond. "That Mer-chant Marine whatever it is ain't working for the good of the people. It's all Wall Street interests. Mr. Hammond received word from

Dr. Long recently that he wanted to resign from the district organization He wrote back asking the minister if any bill. We are winning.

And the Speaker knows it. Not a day district or association would mean the now passes in the House he doesn't realize severance of connection with the Socialist undertook the things he advocated as long as its support was effective. He declared that both the Democrats and Republicans are becoming socialistic printhe revelation which comes with contest.

To save his face he has not hestated to te up with Tammany on occasion, as in March, 1909. Almost historical in the attitude of a commoner for a quarter of a century, he has been at heart a creature. March, 1805. Almost historical in the attitude of a commoner for a quarter of a century, he has been at heart a creating of living, of aristocratic tendency, we have shown it. Professing simple tastes, he has been as extravagant and extreme as any of the ultra products of this comhe had never been active good material for an object lesson of social friends then tried to get a warrant for his conditions. So he knocked them down arrest on the charge of non-support to the highest bidder. The Presbytery but this plan failed because the band of Brooklyn two years ago asked him to has sent her $30. slip out unconsciously—'only a creature of ordinary human attributes greed of power, pride and that very common capacity for dominion; and all this at a insists upon placing the entire Church, masmuch as it didn't have any relations with the Presbyterians. It is safety in a one man power

"Uncle Joe hasn't spoken to me for five years," he concludes.
"And did you insurgents find the Colone!

HARD HEADED GOV. FORT. sympathetic with your views?" you ask remembering the Mecca and the pil-grimage. The pilgrim smiles.
"Now what do you suppose?" he answers. A New Jersey Plumber Tells a Paucet

Story to Prove It. SPRING LAKE, N. J., July 3. A SPRING LAKE, N. J., July 3.—A gar-rulous plumber has told on Gov. Fort, and the story is raising a laugh wherever it goes. This is the way the plumber tells it:

Owing to the presence of President Taft at the stadium exercises unusual restrictions and regulations have been made for this gathering. Two secret service men and local policemen will be Now what do you suppose? The ex- and the story is raising a laugh wherever President is a very, very smart man. it goes and the pilgrim smiles as quizzically tells it:

The Kansan returns to his native heath institutents even though he be not a sharp off. And I said to the Governor. politician Incidentally he will be at close quarters to his newspaper which brings him enjoyment because he "likes How on earth did you break off that faucet?' And he said, 'I hit it.' And I faucet? And he said, said, 'How'd you hit it?' And he said Thit it with my hand.' And I said, 'Did you knock that faucet off with your head, hereause if you did you must have hurt you knock that fauceton with your have hurt because if you did you must have hurt yourself awful?' And he said, 'Well, I was takin' a bath and I slipped and fell, and I hit the faucet with my head, and it mean.' And I broke off the faucet I mean. And I said, Didn't it hurt your head? and he says. No, it didn't. I don't know why, but somehow it didn't.

"Then I started to go away, having fixed the faucet, and the Governor, he says, 'Now don't you go and tell that to anybody, because there are some fools that don't like me and they'll put it in the papers, and folks 'll laugh any say my head's so hard it'll break a faucet.' And Chinatown is happy once more. Billy it and I wouldn't say a word about and I won't. Now, don't you tel! the Cavanagh of the theatre in Doyers street to anybody."

New Catholie Chapel Blessed.

The Rev. Mgr. Joseph F. Mooney, six months. They played "The Strong Vicar-General, blessed the new Roman Opera House in 1891 has just died in Italy. yesterday morning. The solemn high mass was celebrated by the Rev. James J. MacAran of Philadelphia. The deacon was the Rev. William A. Jackson of Tompkins Cove. The Rev. John J. Morris of Port Jervis acted as subdeacon and the Rev. John G. McCormick of Tuckshop was the master of ceremonies. The Rev. was the master of ceremonies. omas F. Halpin of Yonkers delivered

The Wall Street "Evening Son."

Sun contains all the financial news and the stock and bond quotations to the close ago the man who had been weakened by the bounties the fact that Jung Chin, the leader of the orchestra, is a Four Brothers man and edifficulties of modern life considered unconventional. A policeman additional news matter, are contained also in the night edition of THE EVENING SUN

MINORITY

Minority means elimination. That is why we do not turn horde of sub-contractors loose on a building operation. We do most of the work ourselves and sublet little. Performing direct the major part of the work on a building ensures quality and saves subcontractors' profits at least equivalent to and often an excess of our fee. This sort of economy serves the Owner's best interests. It also serves our own.

> COMPANY uilding Construction Fifty-One Wall Street

THOMPSON-STARRETT

Massachusetts Woman Claims Legitimate Daughter.

BOSTON, July 3 - Beatrice Anita Baldwi of Brookline, her mother, Mrs. Lillian thy W. Coakley, will leave Boston next for one-third of the estate of Lucky Baldwin. A sum estimated at $6,000,000 to $8,000,000 is the stake.

Baldwin incorporated the following paragraph in his will: "I have only three children-Clara S., Anita M. and Roselds F. If after my death! any person or per sons shall be able to convince my execu tors or establish in court that he or she i child of mine to such person or persons

Attorney Coakley says that it would be established that Flias J. Baldwin and Lillian Ashley were legally married, ac cording to California statute; that the woman believed herself to be Baldwin's woman received nerser to be Baldwin s legal wife, not knowing that he had a wife, and was not divorced at the time she contracted her marriage agreement, that Beatrice was the fruit of that mar-riage of Baldwin and Lillian Ashley, and therefore a legal heir to the Baldwin

The California code contains the following remnent of old Spanish law, which was adopted when California be-came a State: "The issue of all marriages null in law or dissolved by divorce are legitimate."

passing upon the Beatrice Baldwin claim the courts will be asked to rule upon the legitimacy of Roselda S. Bald-win, one of the heirs named in the will Until the reading of the instrument neither of the two other recognized daughters, Clara or Anita, knew of the existence of Roselda, who is the wife of an Oakland candy dealer.

WAITING FOR THE LORD. Hand of Fanatics Expect Him to Come Soon With a Hig Noise

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 3. Gathered in a spacious house in the select residential part of this city, a little band of about dozen men and women are awaiting his loss of power. Only constant vigor and action on his part—and he is game—and his resignation was acted upon on last Friday night at the regular bi-weekly vision—the shallow of a one time power. In the coming of the Lord. Marcus M. Goodell, a prosperous business man, in whose house in Buckingham street they There wasn't any trouble getting it are waiting has abandoned all his earthly are waiting has abandoned all his earthly below to the only the collection of the colle He knows the substance is gone, the House knows it, but after thirty-eight years of public life, in eight of which he was dominant, he regards it essential to keep before the public a seeming sovereight. The regulars support him with apparent reluctance; and that is gall and wormwood to the Sheaker.

The Steaker has one great concern

"There wasn't any trouble getting it are waiting has abandones and irving, business. Edward, Alfred and Irving, business. Edward, Alfred and Irving, business are waiting has abandones and irving, business, Edward, Alfred and Irvi the Lord by one of the prophets of the se in Duxbury has passed, this Pentacost hand has not wavered in its faith, simply renying to scofers that the prophet, being human, erred in trying to set the time but that the Lord will come in his

he had never been active in the locialist organization here and that he had resignes just as one resigns from a club one sait much interested in "I don't want to criticise something I never was very active in." he said in the law savery active in. he said is to have a supply of pure water, for they don't approve of their fuctes I will still teach religious socialism that is they have due and application of the Golden Rule to husiness and daily life but to do that I am better of a political organization. Dr. Long is the man who auctioned of Dr. Long is the man who auctioned Dr. Long is the man who auctioned Dr. Long is the law is the consent of provided the cellar along stocked the cellar al socialist through the flood.

House changes in the manner of committee appointment—that this nation will never again see Cannon's like in power—"After all he was"—the tense seems to slip out unconsciously—"only a creature good material for an object lesson of make the such as the commendation of the house by legal methods. His wife, when he left almost penniless with seven children when he entered the Ark, went to the house repeatedly and begged him to go material for an object lesson of make the commendation of the house of the house repeatedly and begged him to go material for an object lesson of make the commendation of the house are lesson of the house of the house of the house of the house of the commendation of the house of the all most penniless with seven children when he entered the Ark, went to the house of the commendation of the commendation of the commendation of the house of the commendation of the

EDUCATORS MEET TO-DAY.

President Taft to Speak

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. July 3.—To-morrow

Theen working for the Governor.

"I been working for the Governor."

Theen fixin' his bathtub. It was broke the faucet was busted. It was broke sharp off. And I said to the Governor.

How on earth did you break off that the President's party will go to the President's party will go to the the guest of President Lowell at lincheon.

The President's party will go to the stadium in automobiles at 3 o'clock.

Within the stadium will be an orchestra of thirty pieces and a chorus of 309 voices from the Handel and Haydn societies.

President Lowell will preside at the exercises, and among the speakers besides President Taft will be Gov. Kitchen, Gov. Dranger, Mayor Fitzgerald, President Gov. Draper, Mayor Fitzgerald, President Joyner of the association, David Starr Jordan, Paul Revere Frothingham and Francis G. Blair. The ushers will be Harvard men, with William F. Garcelon

DEATH STILLS SINGER'S VOICE. this Sofia Ravogli, Soprano, Succeeded in-

London but Not in New York. Sofia Ravogli, who was brought to this country by Abbey & Grau when they assumed control of the Metropolitan Catholic chapel at Highland Mills, N. Y., She was an Italian soprano and the sister of Giulia Ravogli, who accompanied her to this country.

They were both Italian singers of little reputation when Signor Lago gave an Italian opera season in London at Her Majesty's Theatre in 1890. Giulia Ravoglia, the contralto, made a sensational success in London as Orfeo and remained there afterward. The success was never repeated anywhere else, least of all at the Metropolitan Opera House.

Sofia, the soprano, who has just died, sang Eurydice in the London production of Gluck's opera. She appeared here in

The Wall Street "Evening Sun."

The Wall Street edition of THE EVENING ION contains all the financial news and the stock and bond quotations to the close the same part and in other secondary.

SEA TRAVEL RECORD BROKEN

ATLANTIC STEAMSHIPS OUTDO-ING 1907 THES YEAR.

ing More Grand Pa Hosts in Anticipation of Continued Prosperity From 110,000 to 120,000 is to He the Three Months Total.

Early in the spring optimistic steam hip men prophesied that there would be the greatest efflux of cabin passengers from this port in the "travel season. or the period between April 15 and July 15. that 1907, the banner year for eastward cabin passenger traffic, would be eclipsed more weeks, usually lively ones, to hear from. The increase over the season of and second cabin passengers on Saturday, is more than 18,000. Steampship men say that there will be enough voyagers self of 1907 to more than 20,000.

Gustav H. Schwab of the North German Lloyd Line said yesterday that it should that more than twenty fine passenger carying steamships had been added to the feets of the various lines; since 1907. While much exaggerated stuff has been written about the enormous sums paid out by travellers in Europe," said Mr Schwab, "travel is a well paying invest ment. The American people have a habit of not paying for anything for which they do not get value received. The Passion Play at Oberammergau is undoubtedly Play at Oberammergau is undoubtedly responsible for many people making the trip this year. Cabled advices indicate that the seating capacity of the amphitheatre is taxed at every performance and that it is therefore necessary to give extra performances every week."

"The figures show that from April 15 to July 1 45,191 first cabin and 46,113 second passengers went to Europe. With practically two weeks sailings ahead the total number of first cabin passengers going abroad for the travel season will be between 55,000 and 60,000, with a like between 55,000 and 60,000, with a like number of second cabin passengers, a total of between 110,000 and 120,000 carried by the steamship lines in a period of three year up to date by more than eight hundred first cabin and nearly six thousand second cabin passengers over the first half of the phenomenai year of 1907. Naturally with the return of the hosts that have gone away, to which may be added an unusual influx of foreign travellers, the latter half of this year will see also the record for westbound cabin travel locked out. That the steamship men are hopeful that the great passenger carrying trade along the Altantic lane is going to be still better in coming seasons is apparent, as they have under construction several they have under construction several liners bigger than the imperial Cunard turbines and the Cunard folks themselves have ordered two one thousand foot Titans. Naturally these big, swift ships hope to take a very profitable kind of freight, that for swift delivery and colossal quantities of it, in addition to unprecedented numbers of passengers for single hulls. Evidently the steamship men believe that there will be no slump in prosperity for four or five seasons at least. perity for four or five seasons at least

WOMAN'S ADOPTION ILLEGAL Man Cannot Take I nto Himself a Daughter Without Wife's Consent.

Boston, July 3. By annulling the adoption papers which made Mrs. Lucy McGraw, a fifty-one-year-old woman, the up this daughter of Fred H Davis, a man six years older than herself. the decree handed down the other day by the full bench of the Supreme Court terminated one of

The annument of the adoption which made Mrs McGraw, a prominent ousiness woman of Boston, the daughter of Mr. Davis, an engraver, who died shortly after the adoption went into effect made according to the Court's decre-on the grand that while Davis's petition alleged him to be a widower the fact that

The money had been paid by the associa-tion to Mrs McGraw previous to the dis-covery that the adoption of Mrs McGraw was illega tragic ending of a love story in, Tsuzuki a seaside village in Shizuoka. It appears First Big Session in Harvard Stactum that a young man named One Matsusaku. aged 20, and a girl called Ono O-Bun, aged 17, of the village in question, fell in love with each other and sought their afternoon at 3:39 the first general session of the National Education Association will be held at the Harvard stadium.

MARRIED AFTER DEATH.

In love with each other and sought their parents, sanction to their union. For some reason this was withheld in the case of the girl, and the couple resolved to commit shinju rather than be sepa-

Accordingly one night the girl left her ome and joined her lover at a trysting lace. The two then embarked on a fishing boat belonging to the young man's father. At a point some distance from the shore the couple bound themselves together with some cloth brought with them from getting her head knocked off, that to the sea. The following morning the couple were missed and the matter was communicated to the police. Later the bodies of the young people were washed ashore and after the official examination, delivered to the parents

On learning of the tragedy the Mayor of the village was much affected and, calling upon the bereaved parents, proposed that the wedding ceremony be performed over the dead bodies, so that the deceased might be united in the other The parents agreed, and the ceremony was carried out in due form en to the exchange of presents between the two families.

The ceremony was legally registered, as it had taken place before the deaths had been officially entered on the register.

B. A., THOUGH DEAF AND DUMB. Cambridge Man Who Got Degree Under Difficulties.

LONDON, June 25.-F. A. Mackenzie who has been deaf and dumb from birth. has obtained his B. A. degree at Cambridge. His success is all the more remarkable as he has had no tutors, at-

LIVE TOPICS ABOUT TOWN.

If the city authorities ever make New York Central remove its freight tracks from the West Side there is boy who will lose a novel job. His duty is to ride ahead of the freight trains from the uptown to the downtown terminal. He is mounted on an old gray horse which knows the route as well as the hov and keeps about one block ahead of the lokeeps about one block shead of the lo-comotive hauling the long string of cars The boy waves a red flag to warn people of the train's approach and signals the engineer of the train when the traffic is clear. Along Canal street the boy has been nicknamed Paul Revere.

that ever had been known. That meant habit, as John Burroughs says, that in duces the bears in the you to carry their bread to the pool of water?" said an ob-It has been already, with practically two serving woman. "No matter by what name you describe bruin's mental state it is interesting to watch him with the loaf of bread. He knows that it is dry 1997, according to figures which do not loaf of bread. He knows that it is drinclude the exodus of about 4,000 first eating, so he carries it in his mouth to the pool and drops it in to soak. The grizzly will take two or three loaves and them in the water and then jump in le self and eat them. The big Ka outward bound in the next two weeks to bear throws in several loaves and then the bring the total excess over the departures of 1807 to more than 20,000.

"It does me good to see a pompous man be remembered when reflecting on this get his," said a stock broker. "I have a but making any especial success. Thomas friend who just about believes the Lord created the earth in seven days for his especial benefit. He has a summer home over on Long Island, with a retinue of servants, but his wife is a semi-invalid and it falls to the lot of Mr. Pompous to execute various commissions for her in the city. The other day she asked him to stop at a clothing store and get a couple of white duck include for the butter. It enormous increase of passenger business friend who just about believes the Lord to stop at a clothing store and get a couple of white duck jackets for the butler. I happened to be with him when he entered the store. Striding majestically up to a sallow little salesman he said with little much impressive dignity:
"I wish to purchase a couple of white

"Yes, sir,' said the little salesman.
"Yes, sir,' said the little salesman.
"What size do you wear?"
"Mr. Pompous got red in the face, spluttered and gurgled, and then as if fearing to trust himself to speech turned on his heel and strode from the place. He left me at the next corner and has avoided me ever since."

"Tell him to give you horse sugar called out the sick woman to the visitor. who had started out to do a little market-

Having bought everything else on the list, the woman coughed two or three times over the sugar item and added "I am sure I don't know what she means by that, but maybe you know.

"Oh, yes. I know," said the grocer "She means sugar that is kind of speckly.
Every little while I get a lot of lump sugar that is not just first class. Semebody has dropped it in loading or unloading, and it is broken and black at the edges. and it is broken and black at the edges. If the sugar is very dirty I label it 'Sugar for horses.' Horses won't stop to look for the specks and people who buy sugar for them can save money on the broken umps. But it looks as if some of the poor families in this neighborhood do not feed all their speckled sugar to the horses. It comes cheap and when one is hard pushed no doubt it tastes pretty good in

The most immaculate man in the one cent phonograph concert room said to the next most immaculate man:

"Would you like to use these sanitary ear protectors? They fit right over the rim of the receivers and make contagion s Chatham Square were held for trial in impossible. Special Sessions. Another case was ad-

The man who ran second in the race for journed neatness examined the hollow rubber rings. "They look kind of nifty," he

"They are more than nifty," said the immaculate man. "They are essential to health and ought to be provided free to the patrons of every cheap phonograph concert. Such provision for safety is found in many foreign concert rooms. Antiseptic measures are still in their infancy in this country, so anybody who wishes to safeguard his ears at a show of this kind has to provide his own pro-he had a wife living made the perition, said the gray headed man. These and void, since the law says that the consent hundreds of other villages are burning home. These summer visits betray the real nativity of many an adopted New Yorker to his intimate triends. Per-sonally the social doings of the great interest me not at all, yet I read up on their comings and goings these hot days Rather Than He Separated.

SEATTLE, June 27 A strange story comes in the last mail from Japan of a tragic ending of a love story in Tayingh.

*Funny little names some of those re-mote summer resorts have and their situation proves that the only attraction they can possibly have for a man of affairs is boyhood memories, and maybe an old grave or two. Still, I am glad when I read that Lawyer Green is spending a week in Olive Branch, Ohio; I like him for it, and I resolve that the next scrape I get into I shall employ Lawyer Green

"Those big hats are all right all right said the man. "I want my wife to wear one on week days and Sundays, night and morning. Why? They keep her purpose and threw themselves, is why All her life she has had the habit of poking her head through cab windows car windows, the windows of any thing she happened to be riding in. lars, posts and passing vehicles grazed her nose, but possible beheadings had no terror for her. But since she has taken terror for her. But since she has taken to wearing big hats she has to keep her head inside because the hats won't through the window. When voting through the window. When voting or against big hats just put me among the 'ayes

> A. B. POWELL'S FUNERAL. Services Over the Williams College Class

Day Orator Held in Montelair.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., July 3. Funeral services over the remains of Arthur

Barr Powell, the Williams College graduate who died in Williamstown of an attack of appendicitis that followed ptomaine poisoning at the recent Williams commencement banquet, were held to-day in the Wilde Memorial chapel of the First Congregational Church. The body will be interred to-morrow.

Powell's father, William H. Powell of 197 Midland avenue, is so ill that he has not been notified of his son's death, and for that reason also the remains were not taken to his home upon their arrival here from Williamstown last night. Young Powell was class day orator at Williams College. He was a graduate of the Mont-College. He was a clair High School.

Catholie Retreat fer Women. The Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Mary will open their new academy at Mary mount, Tarrytown on the Hudson, to-day sang Eurydice in the London production of Gluck's opera. She appeared here in the same part and in other secondary rôles, never winning at the Metropolitan the fame that she shared with her sister in London. Neither was reengaged to return here. Sofia produced Mascagni's "Zanetto" in London.

While at Oxford he determined to try for a degree at Cambridge, and he says that he did not find the examinations public schools, the graduates of both high and normal schools and to educate Catholic women in general. The academy, a gift of James Butler, was recently dedicated by Archbishop Farley. The retreat sor the women teachers in public schools, the graduates of both high and normal schools and to educate Catholic women in general. The academy, a gift of James Butler, was recently dedicated by Archbishop Farley. The retreats for the women teachers in public schools, the graduates of both high and normal schools and to educate catholic women in general. The academy, a gift of James Butler, was recently dedicated by Archbishop Farley. The retreat of the higher mathematics, such as statics and hydrostatics. He has no plans for the future save to carry on his mission among the deaf and dumb. for retreats for the women teachers in at times, the only thing you want for

No Breakfast Appetite? Is the morning paper, this: Coffee, cocoa or tea, piping hot, and quide burned-and Keiller's breakfast? Then try

Marmalade

THRIFTY PLAYWRIGHTS SCHEME

"The Forture Hunter's" Profits Fixed so Winehell Smith Can't Reach Them Winchell Smith, author of "The Fortune

Hunter," which has just closed its season at the Comedy Theatre after running there for the whole season, sailed suddenly on Saturday from Europe on a peculiar errand. He is returning to find out how much he has earned from the comedy Although he wrote it he doesn't know. A year ago last spring "The Fortune Hunter" was tried out on the road with-

to hold on.
They did hold on and the turn soon came. Probably no other play of the season has drawn such receipts as "The Fortune Hunter." A company was sent to Chicago with Thomas Ross in the part he had created. It has played all the season to audiences that crowded the theatre. When the author saw what was coming when the author saw what was coming he set to work to devise some plan by which he could keep the receipts of "The Fortune Hunter" if every other play he wrote was a failure. He went to a trust

"What I want you to do for me," he said, "is to collect the royalties on my play for the next three years, invest them and so arrange their collection that I shall not get one cent for at least three years.

The company so arranged the mat-The company so arranged the matter. Three companies will act the play next season. But Mr. Smith is coming back on the Celtic now to find out how much the trust company has collected for him even if he can't get the money.

No More Summer Opera at Terrace Garden.

at Terrace Garden this season. After the German "Merry Widow" was stopped by Henry W. Savage on Saturday the man-

There will be no more open air operetta

Henry W. Savage on Saturday the man-agement got Savage's permission to go on with the play on payment of $500. But the audience that heard "Gesperone" on Saturday night was so small, although "The Merry Widow" had been announced, that Manager Suesskind decided to call everything off and blame the weather.

Three Fireworks Dealers Held. Four East Side merchants were in the Tombs court yesterday charged with offering fireworks for sale in tenement houses. They were summoned at the instance of Peter Acritelli of the Municipal Explosives Commission Juanna Casall of 170 Hester street, William Feuer of 164 Park row and Jennie Schuster of OBITE ARY.

George M Devier of Boston died at his summer home at Prides Crossing Saturday evening of heart disease, aged 76. When a young man he went to New Orleans, where he engaged in business, remaining there until about thirty years ago, when he returned to Boston and was chosen treasurer of the Pepperell Laconia Manufacturing Company, holding the position up to the time of his death. He was for many years actively interested in large enterprises of Boston capital. He was a director of the National Union Bank of Boston, the New England Trist Company, the Massa-this kind has to provide his own protector.

These are days of jubilee for Onarga.
Ili. Mount Pisgah. Ohio, and Salem. Ia said the gray headed man. These and thundreds of other villages are burning literal and metaphorical red fire because some youngster who went out into the world years ago and earned fame for himself has slipped back to the old home for a week's vacation.

The society columns in the New York has break into metropolitan print when the braker, the doctor and the lawyer go home. These summer visits betray the break into metropolitan print when the braker, the doctor and the lawyer go
home. These summer visits betray the sonally the social doings of the great interest me not at all, yet I read up on their comings and coings these hot days
were summer and coings the great interest me not at all, yet I read up on
their comings and coings these hot days
were summer and coings the great
interest me not at all, yet I read up on
their comings and coings these hot days
were summer as a graduate of Trinity College and of Columbia law whoshed a floor Bank of Boston, the way Antional I nion Bank of Boston, the week England Tries Company, the Massa-chusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company,
the Amosheag Manufacturing Company,
and the Boston Manufacturing Company,
the Amosheag Manufacturing Company,
the Amosheag Manufacturing Company,
the Amosheag Manufacturing Company,
the Amosheag Manufacturing Company

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Cook, wife of John H. cok, editor and proprietor of the Red ank Register, died yesterday at her home a Manle ayemie, Red Bank, N. J., after by Bright's disease. Her maide tas Clay and she was married to Mr 1881. Prior to that time she bad your ketchup bottle before purchasing. Be sure you get the kind of ketchup that needs no Benzoate of Soda to make it keep. HEINZ TOMATO KETCHUP

LAUDER'S Songs, Scotch Toasts, Scotch books, Irish Toasts, Irish Books, PRAPT, 161 6th av.